

OUR WINE LIST REFLECTS OUR BASIC PHILOSOPHY OF SUPPORTING LOCAL INDUSTRY AND BEING AS TRUE AS POSSIBLE TO THE GASTRONOMY AND VITICULTURE OF SPAIN. FOR OUR OREGON LIST WE HAVE CHOSEN WINES PRODUCED PREDOMINANTLY IN THE SOUTHERN OREGON APPELLATION, WHILE OUR SPANISH LIST CONTAINS A VARIETY OF EXCELLENT WINES FROM SEVERAL OF THE DIFFERENT WINE PRODUCING REGIONS OF THAT COUNTRY. THERE ARE A FEW PLACES WHERE WE MADE SOME EXCEPTIONS, BUT WE THINK YOU'LL AGREE THEY'RE WORTH BENDING THE RULES FOR.

SPECIAL CELLAR WINES WE THINK ARE AMAZING

Descendientes de J. Palacios – Pétalos, 2011

42

Bierzo, Spain. This 100% Garnacha benefits from the hot weather in Bierzo, making it a fruit forward, high alcohol offering that shows bright red and black currant on the nose. Dark berry and anise flavors gain firmness with air, leading to gently tannic finish. This wine was #57 in the Wine Spectator's top 100 wines of the year.

Lazy River Pinot Noir, 2009

55

Yamhill-Carlton. Some people claim that this vintage is the best ever for Oregon Pinot Noirs. This wine has a beautiful nose of red fruit and a hint of earthiness. On the palate it is complex and multilayered, with blackberry and cherry flavors dominating. The finish is long, with well balanced tannins.

Alejandro Fernandez – Tinto Pesquera, 2010

58

Ribera del Duero, Spain. This beautiful Tempranillo is the next step up from the popular Condado de Haza. It is a Crianza style wine aged for 18 months in 90% American and 10% French oak. It offers a big bouquet of ripe plum, cassis, and dried violets, followed by a palate of cassis and blackberry with spiced undertones, leading to a long finish.

Ladera Cabernet Sauvignon. 2010

64

Napa Valley. This typical California Cabernet Sauvignon is a fruit driven wine that has great texture and seamless balance. Aromas of ripe plum and black cherries are complimented with notes of cedar and anise. The palate is layered with black fruits, sweet oak spice and ripe tannins that linger on a long velvety finish.

Eden Vale Syrah, 2005

65

Rogue Valley. Blackberry, blueberry, and black currant dominate the nose of this aged wine. Flavors of blackberry and dark fruit come through on the palate, with an underlying spice note that is very pleasant. This wine benefits from some time open or decanting.

Bohème Taylor Ridge Pinot Noir, 2010

68

Sonoma Coast. This wine is produced by a Medford native who is the grandson of the founder of the renowned Camus Winery. This elegant Pinot Noir has aromas of red cherry, sandalwood, and Christmas spice, leading to delicious red cherry and cranberry fruits on the palate, backed by supple tannins and a long finish with just a hint of oak.

Winderlea – Juliard Vineyard Pinot Noir, 2012

73

Willamette Valley, Dundee Hills. This masculine Single Vineyard Pinot Noir is from the Juliard Vineyard in the Dundee Hills. This wine has a beautiful nose of ripe raspberry and a hint of black tea. On the palate it has ripe raspberry and red cherry with well integrated tannins on the long finish.

Aalto, 2011

80

Ribera del Duero, Spain. This 100% Tempranillo has a nose strong in wood smoke and blackberry, with floral overtones. The palate is powerful, layered, and intense with flavors of blackberry and currant. The finish is long and complex with well structured tannins.

Turnbull Oakville Cabernet Sauvignon, 2011

84

Napa Valley – Oakville Appellation. This estate grown wine is 81% Cabernet Sauvignon, 9% Merlot, 5% Malbec, and 5% Petit Verdot, and is widely thought of as one of the best Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignons from the difficult 2011 vintage. This wine has a nose of ripe plum framed by cocoa and herbs. On the palate it shows ripe black cherry with a stony undercurrent and supple tannic character.

Numanthia, 2009

98

Toro, Spain. Intense red and black fruit framed by vanilla, toasted cocoa, and tobacco are the first aromas from this 100% Tempranillo. The powerful palate is dominated by rich dark fruit, cocoa, and spice. This wine has some grip, and the velvety tannins are best served by a short decanting.

Cellar Capçanes – Cabrida, 2003

105

Montsant, Spain. This 100% Garnacha is the winery's flagship offering, produced from low yield vines between 70 and 105 years old. It has a splendid perfume of pencil lead, earth, and smoky black cherries. Its flavors are intense with black fruit offering a long elegant finish. Be warned, this huge wine needs some time to open up.
