

OREGON WHITE

	2oz	Glass	Bottle
Cuckoo's Nest Cellars Pinot Gris, 2014	3	7	26
Rogue Valley. With an aromatic nose of pear and stone fruit, this wine is crisp and refreshing, showing the same stone fruit on the palate, framed by light citrus, and a satisfying, lingering finish.
Quady North – Pistoleta, 2014	3	7	27
Rogue Valley. This dry white wine is a blend of Roussanne, Marsanne, Viognier, and Grenache Blanc that offers vibrant fruit aromas of melon and lychee. These same tones come across on the palate with the additional hint of orange and citrus,
Daisy Creek Viognier, 2014	3	7	31
Rogue Valley. This wine has stone fruit that pops on the nose, leading to a delicate palate of white peach and green apple. It has good acidity that makes it great for pairing with food or drinking on its own.
Roxy Ann Chardonnay, 2013	3.25	8	36
Rogue Valley. This crisp Chardonnay shows bright green apple with lemon hints on the nose. Light oak with some malolactic fermentation give it a well-structured mouthfeel that is incredibly well balanced with flavors of tropical fruit, light toastiness, and food friendly acidity

Oregon White Flight

8.5

Choose any three Oregon whites (you can even choose the white special if it's from Oregon), and get 2oz pours of each.

SPANISH WHITE

Perés Baltà – Blanc de Pacs, 2014	3	7	25
Catalunya. Xarel-lo, Macabeo, and Parellada grapes create a light citric background with apple and pineapple flavors in this approachable dry wine. These are the same three grapes that are used in making Cava, the Spanish sparkling wine.
Duquesa de Valladolid, 2014	3	7	26
Rueda. This 100% Verdejo shows tropical fruit and herbs on the nose, framed by solid minerality. On the palate it has green apple and pineapple with good mid body weight and a long finish for a Verdejo.
Condes de Albarei Albariño, 2014	3	7	27
Rias Baixas. This crisp dry white from Northwest Spain offers notes of lemon zest and green apple, with high acidity and a clean finish. It is one of the classic white varieties of Spain.

Spanish White Flight

8

Choose any three glass pour Spanish whites (you can even choose the white special if it's from Spain), and get 2oz pours of each.

OREGON ROSÉ

Quady North Rosé, 2014	3	7	26
Rogue Valley. This is a serious rosé, made from predominantly Grenache, Syrah, and Mourvèdre. This wine has a nose of strawberry and melon, leading to a dry, French style palate of melon with citrus, and food friendly acidity.

SPANISH ROSÉ

Marqués de Cáceres, 2014	3	7	25
Rioja. This dry rosé of Tempranillo has a ripe and youthful nose of strawberry, cherry, and melon, giving way to ripe berry flavors with a hint of kiwi and grapefruit.

OREGON RED

	2oz	Glass	Bottle
Willamette Valley Vineyards Pinot Noir – Founders Reserve, 2014	3	7	30
Willamette Valley. This classic Oregon Pinot Noir has bright red cherry on the nose with an earthy note, followed by a traditional palate of red fruit and tea. The slight oak on the mid palate gives depth to the wine, and the finish is delicate and sophisticated.
Del Rio Merlot, 2013	3	7	33
Rogue Valley. This wine shows ripe fruit on the nose, with a lush and ripe dark fruit palate. It has well integrated tannins leading to a long smooth finish with great texture and structure.
Folin Cellars Passive Aggressive, 2013	3.25	8	36
Rogue Valley. This offering from award winning winemaker Rob Folin is a blend of Tempranillo and Grenache that has a rich nose of plum and dark fruit. The palate is equally lush, with dark cherry and plum followed by a long finish.
Kriselle Cellars Cabernet Sauvignon, 2012	3.75	9	38
Rogue Valley. This wine has red berry and plum on the nose with a hint of vanilla oak, leading to cherry, raspberry, and plum on the palate, with firm tannins on a ripe finish.
Quady North Syrah “4-2,A”, 2012			38
Rogue Valley. This single vineyard wine has lush dark fruit framed by earth and spice on both the nose and palate, with beautiful silky tannins, great structure, and a long delicate finish.
Jaxon Vineyards Syrah, 2012	3.75	9	38
Rogue Valley. This Syrah has a nose of dark fruit and earth with hints of pepper and spice. The palate is full with well integrated mid palate tannins, and flavors of cassis and dark cherry.
Eden Vale Reserve Claret, 2005	3.75	9	39
Rogue Valley. This wonderful Bordeaux blend of Merlot, Cabernet Franc, and Cabernet Sauvignon is ripe in flavor and silky in texture. The palate offers layers of black cherry, plum, and black currant, with hints of cocoa and toasted coffee bean on its long, lush finish.
Roxy Ann Claret, 2012			40
Rogue Valley. Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, and Cabernet Franc make this a complex wine with a long finish. Flavors range through cherry, currant, and blackberry with a spiced finish that shows hints of cedar.
Upper Five Tempranillo, 2013			46
Rogue Valley. Only their second vintage, this wine is quickly gaining acclaim and recognition. It has dark plum and cherry on the nose with notes of cocoa and tobacco. The palate is lush and ripe, focused on black cherry, plum, and black currant, leading to well integrated tannins on a long finish.
House Label “Elemental Red” by Quady North, 2009			53
Rogue Valley. This private label was produced for us by our friends at Quady North. It is the 2009 Arsenal, reserved for only the best grapes each year, and produced in very small quantity. It is a blend of Cabernet Franc and Merlot that shows deep ripe dark cherry and plum on the nose, leading to a ripe and lush wine on the palate with notes of cedar on the long finish.
Red Lily Tempranillo, 2011			60
Applegate Valley. This 100% Tempranillo has a huge nose of black currant and plum, with cocoa and coffee undertones. On the palate it is rich and well structured, showing black cherry, plum, and rich toasted coffee.

Oregon Red Flight	9
Choose any three glass pour Oregon reds (you can even choose the white special if it's from Oregon), and get 2oz pours of each.

HALF BOTTLES

Rex Hill Pinot Noir, 2012	23
Willamette Valley. This wine has bright red cherry fruit with good acidity. It is a great food wine, built in the Burgundian style, with subtle tannins on the finish.

SPANISH RED

	2oz	Glass	Bottle
Pata Negra Crianza, 2011			23
Ribera del Duero. This wine has a nose that shows dark fruit with sweet spice tones, leading to a rich palate of black cherry and plum, and well integrated silky tannins.
Iranzo Vertus Crianza Tempranillo, 2011	3	7	28
Utiel – Requena. This aged Tempranillo is from Spain’s oldest Estate Bottled winery – dating back to 1335. Produced from 100% organically grown grapes, it has a ripe nose of black currant and cocoa, with cherry on the palate with mild tannins on the finish.
Sarmiento Cuatro Pasos, 2011	3	7	32
Bierzo. This beautiful “New World” style wine made from 100% Mencia grapes has ripe black cherry and plum with hints of cocoa on the nose, leading to rich concentrated flavors of cherry, ripe berry, and black plum. The tannins are subtle and well integrated on the long, ripe finish.
Fincas de Landeluce Reserva, 2009	3.25	8	35
Rioja Alavesa. This more traditional “Old World” style Tempranillo has aromas of plum and ripe cherry, leading to rich flavors of dried cherry and dark chocolate accented by bright cranberry.
Campo Viejo Gran Reserva, 2008			39
Rioja. Tempranillo, Graciano, and Mazuela grapes produce a wine rich in fruit aromas with a woody and spicy finish. The Gran Reserva designation is reserved for wines that have been aged a minimum of 2 years in oak and 3 years in the bottle before release.
Alejandro Fernandez – Condado de Haza, 2012	4	10	44
Ribera del Duero. This 100% Tempranillo is a fine example of modern Spanish wine making. Plum and earth dominate the nose, leading to plum and black cherry on the palate, with great tannic structure and a long lasting finish.
Termes, 2011			50
Toro. This fantastic Tempranillo, produced by Numanthia, is grown in sandy soil on 30 year old un-grafted vines. It is profound and dense with rich dark fruit flavors and a long lasting finish that shows a mild hint of French oak.
Alejandro Fernandez – Tinto Pesquera, 2012			58
Ribera del Duero. This Crianza was aged for 18 months in 90% American oak, and has a bouquet of ripe plum, cassis, and dried violets, followed by a palate of cassis and blackberry with spiced undertones.
La Rioja Alta – “904”, 2001			92
Rioja. This aged wine shows hints of spice and leather against a background of ripe fruit on the nose. The dark fruits on the palate are rich, with well-structured tannins that lead to a beautiful finish with persistent hints of spice.

Spanish Red Flight	8.75
Choose any three glass pour Spanish reds (you can even choose the white special if it’s from Spain), and get 2oz pours of each.

HALF BOTTLES

Marqués de Riscal Reserva, 2008	24
Rioja. Made in the “Old World” style, this predominantly Tempranillo has rich plum and cassis on the nose framed by cocoa and coconut hints. On the palate it shows dark fruit with toasty oak leading to a long finish.
La Rioja Alta – Viña Ardanza Reserva Especial, 2005	32
Rioja. This beautiful Tempranillo and Garnacha blend is warm, meaty, and flavorful. It has ripe fruit and well structured tannins, and a long, lingering finish.

SPECIAL CELLAR WINES WE THINK ARE AMAZING

- Descendientes de J. Palacios – Petalos, 2012 42
Bierzo, Spain. This 100% Garnacha benefits from the hot weather in Bierzo, making it a fruit forward, high alcohol offering that shows bright red and black currant on the nose. Dark berry and anise flavors gain firmness with air, leading to a gently tannic finish. This wine was #57 in The Wine Spectator’s top 100 wines of the year.
- Eden Vale Syrah, 2005 65
Rogue Valley. Blackberry, blueberry, and black currant dominate the nose of this aged wine. Flavors of blackberry and dark fruit comes through on the palate, with an underlying spice note that is very pleasant. This wine benefits from some time open or decanted.
- Bohème Taylor Ridge Pinot Noir, 2010 68
Sonoma Coast. This wine is produced by a Medford native who is the grandson of the founder of the renowned Camus Winery. This elegant Pinot Noir has aromas of red cherry, sandalwood, and Christmas spice, leading to delicious red cherry and cranberry fruits on the palate, backed by supple tannins and a long finish with just a hint of oak.
- Domaine Serene Pinot Noir – Yamhill Cuvée, 2012 70
Willamette Valley, Yamhill – Carlton. Beautiful aromas of red fruit and raspberry dominate the nose, framed by cedar and oak notes. Incredibly smooth on the palate and finish, you will get ripe red fruit and cherry framed by subtle vanilla oak.
- Winderlea – Juliard Vineyard Pinot Noir, 2012 73
Willamette Valley, Dundee Hills. This Masculine single vineyard Pinot Noir has a beautiful nose of ripe raspberry and a hint of black tea. On the palate it has ripe raspberry and red cherry with well integrated tannins on the long finish.
- Alto Moncayo – Moncayo, 2013 77
Campo de Borja, Spain. This 100% old vine Garnacha has ripe aromas of black cherry, plum, and dark berry. On the palate, it shows rich ripe cherry. Some background oak is detectable, as well as a pleasant minerality, giving it a long, complex finish.
- Aalto, 2012 80
Ribera del Duero, Spain. This 100% Tempranillo has a nose strong in wood smoke and blackberry, with floral undertones. The palate is powerful, layered, and intense, with flavors of blackberry and currant. The finish is long and complex with great structure.
- Turnbull Estate Cabernet Sauvignon, 2012 84
Napa Valley. From the Oakville region of Napa, this estate grown wine encapsulates everything you would expect from a Napa Cabernet Sauvignon. It has blackberry and crème de cassis on the nose, leading to a palate that has great tannic structure showing ripe dark cherry and plum.
- Cavallotto Barolo – Bricco Boschis, 2010 92
Castiglione Falletto, Italy. This Barolo, made from 100% Nebbiolo grapes scored 98 points in The Wine Enthusiast, and has leather, balsamic herbs, and spice on the nose. The palate delivers ripe black cherry, black pepper, and raspberry notes with vibrant acidity and well integrated tannins.
- Numanthia, 2009 98
Toro, Spain. Intense red and black fruit framed by vanilla, toasted cocoa, and tobacco are the first aromas from this 100% Tempranillo. The powerful palate is dominated by rich dark fruit, cocoa, and spice. This wine has some grip, and the velvety tannins are best served by a short decanting.
- Termanthia, 2010 250
Toro, Spain. This huge, bold Tempranillo is fresh and intense, with aromas of raspberry, red currant, and cherry, framed by violet and lavender. The palate continues the tour de force, with blackberry and cherry, finishing long with spice, mild oak, and toasty cocoa.